

Naples Passante railway

The project is divided into: building the link for the line to Cassino with the metropolitan Passante (“Variante Cassino”), to Gianturco, and upgrading San Giovanni Barra station;

- completing the first phase of the command and control system (CCS) for the “Naples Hub” and technological upgrade for the Naples Passante with the introduction of safety apparatus (Central Computerised System/PBRR), automatic block systems, equipment, ESS, upgrading ET, selective telephony installations and transition systems.