

Rationalization of systems and stops to upgrade the Genoa node regional railway service

The project involves carrying out infrastructural works required to upgrade the metropolitan railway service in the Genoa basin. A new stop, Genoa Teglia, will be included on the dei Giovi line and a new electrical substation (ESS) will be installed at Mignanego.

