

Bari – Lecce track doubling and electrification

Description:
Track doubling and electrification on the Bari-Lecce line was activated in 2006, with no centralised Command and Control System (CCS), some of the level crossings were eliminated and the stations were modernised.

