

Tortona - Voghera track quadruplication

Description

The project contemplates track quadruplication of the line for approximately 16 km, predominantly flanking existing track. The Voghera - Tortona stretch functionally belongs to the two main lines, Milan Genoa and Turin – Piacenza (Mediopadana main line). The overlaying of flows that run over these main lines in the stretch subject to this project is the main factor making track quadruplication necessary.